70TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE GRANGE

The 70th anniversary of Mattapoisett Grange opened last Thursday afternoon at 1:30 with a public whist party with 9 tables at play. A large table of prizes donated by members of the Grange were on display. Mrs. Millie Wood of New Bedford had the highest score. A large basket of groceries, also donated by the members, was received by Mrs. Wood at the close of the evening.

At 6 P.M. a delicious turkey supper was served by Edward McBride to members and friends of the Grange.

The worthy master, Susan Bence opened the program at 7 P.M. with the Worthy State Master, Frank Nelson of Athol; Mrs. Emily Brightman, a member of the National Assembly of Demeter; and the State Prince Edward Maxa of Cataumet being escorted to the master's right.

A program was presented by the worthy lecturer, Mrs. Lemuel LeBaron, in a gaily decorated hall of blue and gold streamers and balloons. Programs in the same blue and gold theme, carrying out the Subordinate Grange colors of blue and gold, were distributed to Grange, Mrs. Lee Root, director of the Wanderers, a men's chorus, who rendered three groups of vocal selections.

The State Master, guest speaker, was presented. He honored three 50-year members present by pinning a corsage on Mrs. Ruth Tinkham, Mrs. Edith Johansen and a boutionniere to Mr. George Bradley. Unable to be present were Mrs. Isabel Farwell, Mrs. Eunice Randall and Mr. Ernest Dexter, other 50-year members.

Mr. Nelson spoke on agriculture being the noblest of all occupations, as most of our living depends on it, our food and even the wearing apparel. He stressed that we have lived faith, hope and charity and have proved them all - faith in our leaders, hope as sustenance and charity as a characteristic of the order. He also announced that the 1967 State Grange Session will be held in Plymouth.

Corsages and boutionnieres were presented to the past lecturers, past masters and Grange officers by Mrs. Barbara Heuberger, Miss Christine Bence and Miss Doris Fearing.

Following the State Master's message were two vocal solos by the Junior master, Mark Harris, accompanied by Mrs. June Dias of New Bedford. Luke Warm and Tillie, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Cathcart, dressed in very appropriate costumes, entertained with novelty selections on guitar, fiddle and auto horns.

Earle Wilson presented a most interesting history of the Grange, bringing out many highlights of the last 70 years. He noted the burning of the mortgage for the building by the late Charles Dexter who was master when the building was purchased and Lemuel LeBaron, master in 1930 when the mortgage was burned.

The secretary, Mrs. Ruth Shaw, called the roll of past masters and lecturers. For the past masters present blue candles were lit by Henry Howard, Lemuel and Mildred LeBaron, Dennis Sylvia, Otto Kellish and Albert Pemberton. Gold candles were lit for past lecturers, Anna Bradley, Dennis Sylvia, Lemuel and Mildred LeBaron, Olive Gifford and Christine Bence. Worthy master Susan Bence lit one of the candelabrums for past masters and lecturers unable to be present, and the worthy chaplain, Mrs. Rebecca Downing, lit the candles in the second candelabrum for the deceased past masters and lecturers. At the conclusion of this ceremony the table was really a beautiful sight to behold and most impressive.

Lecturer, Mildred LeBaron, lit a candle on her station as a memorial to the seven founders of the order, who have made possible the Centennial Anniversary of the National Grange this year. She thanked all who made the 70th birthday of Mattapoisett Grange a happy one. She also announced that every member of the Grange had some part in the day's program.

Selections by the Wanderers completed the program.

A beautifully decorated birthday cake, frosted in blue and gold, made by Mrs. Cora Smith, was cut by the State Grange Master, Frank Nelson. Blue and gold candles and flowers decorated the table.

Among the more than 100 guests from State and neighboring towns were Deputy Clarence Anderson, Louis Gurney, Edna Day, John Bower and Charles Fuller of the State family; Pomona master, Paul Ouellette; Subordinate masters, Robert Ouellette of Rochester; Manuel Roderick of Fairhaven; Herbert LaFleur of Acushnet; Charles Westgate of West Wareham; Elbredge Cleveland of O-Ne-Set; and Joseph Ouellette, Pomona representative.

Also present at the dinner were Representative and Mrs. Charles MacKenzie of Wareham.

Mrs. Cora Smith served the birthday cake and Mrs. William Sylvia, the coffee, during the social hour.

COUPLES CLUB TO HAVE POT LUCK SUPPER

Various holiday candles will light the tables at a pot luck supper Saturday, January 28th, at 7:45, for the Couples Club of St. Anthony's Church, Mattapoisett, to be held in the church hall. Couples are reminded to bring their own place settings. A short business meeting will follow the supper.

Mr. Walter E. Owen, art director at New Bedford High School, will give an illustrated talk called "Caricatures Anyone?" After the lecture Mr. Owen will do caricature drawings of a few people from the audience. Mr. Owen has done night club sketching in New York and was a former instructor at Swain School of Design in New Bedford.

FINE ARTS MEETING

The subject "Artists of the Italian Renaissance" was given an introductory resume by Miss Clara Beetle for the Fine Arts Group meeting of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club on Wednesday, January 18th, at the home of its chairman, Miss Lydia LeB. Walker. Miss Walker presented the period of Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo, after which Mrs. Luen M. Johnson discussed the life and works of Raphael and Titian. The cities of Rome, Florence and Venice were highlighted as centers of artistic life.

At the coffee hour preceding the program at ten o'clock, Miss Walker was assisted by Mrs. Luen M. Johnson and Mrs. Louis F. Klein. Seventeen club members enjoyed the event.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Lionel Sequeira, R.N., of Marion, was guest speaker for the January meeting of the Rochester Woman's Club. Mrs. Sequeira spoke on the services rendered by the Marion Visiting Nurse Association, Inc., with which she has been connected for the past twenty-five years. She also told of the benefits received by the aged under the new Medicare legislation. Duties of the visiting nurse are varied and include care of the newborn, rehabilitation of the stroke patient, health supervision, instruction in disease prevention, advice to families on care of patients between visits, diet, hypodermic and physical therapy, and assistance with classes for expectant parents twice a year at Tobey Hospital. Every individual in Marion may benefit from this service regardless of race, creed or financial condition.

The visiting nurse has to meet certain qualifications in order to be certified under the Medicare plan and she described the rules and regulations. Mrs. Sequeira noted that Home Health Aid is one of the excellent things to come out of this new program and supplies a very fine service to the elderly. Various interesting current problems to do with facilities for mental health, speech therapy, and encouragement of education in health problems of children were covered during the discussion period. Mrs. George Church was in charge of arranging the program as club chairman of the Department of Public Health.

At the business meeting, Mrs. Everett Hardy, president, reported on a recent meeting at her home to formulate plans for the second annual antiques show in the Spring to be held on Friday through Sunday, March 31, April 1 and 2. Mrs. Hardy and Mrs. George Church will be co-chairmen again this year. Their committee will include Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Sr., tickets; Mrs. Irving Ellis, refreshments; Mrs. Margaret Benner, treasurer; and Mrs. Henry Smith, publicity and advertising. Mrs. Ellis suggested that members who attend the February meeting might each bring a donation of a can of spam, tuna or a cake mix of some kind for refreshments to be served at the show. All dealers who came to last year's show will be cordially invited to attend again.

Mrs. Hardy announced that the Mattapoisett Woman's Club is sponsoring a day of bowling to benefit their scholarship fund and planned for February 11. Reservations should be made with the president, Mrs. Frank Oxnard.

The Mid-Winter meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs will be held on January 31 at John Hancock Hall in Boston. A communication was read by Mrs. Henry Smith, chairman of the Department of Education, which was received from Mrs. Charles W. Smith of Mattapoisett, Third District Direct Representative of Education. She noted that this year the State Education Committee is concerning itself with a study of legislation pertaining to education, the impact of collective bargaining and a study of the Willis Report. Mrs. George Church reported as chairman of the Department of Public Health that the State Public Health Committee's main interest for 1967 will be epilepsy.

Mrs. Hardy told of visiting several club members prior to Christmas, who are convalescing --Mrs. Henrietta Peckham at the Fairhaven Nursing Home, Mrs. Josephine Dexter, Mattapoisett Nursing Home; Mrs. Melissa Bowen, Lakeville Hospital; and Mrs. Grace Hartley, at home. Mrs. Ellis, secretary, was asked to contact the Rochester Board of Selectmen with regard to attending an open meeting to discuss the Town Warrant during February.

Angel cake topped with peaches and whipped cream and coffee was served by the hostess committee comprised of Mrs. Ainsley White, chairman; Mmes. Robley Buckman, Kenneth Winslow and C. Rodman Doane. The centerpiece for the table was a gay little snow man smoking a pipe with red and white accessories.

The next meeting on February 1 will be in charge of Mrs. Margaret Benner, chairman, and Mrs. Everett Hardy, and will feature a game party. Each member attending is asked to bring a gift.

STUDENTS REHEARSING FOR CAMELOT

More than 50 Old Rochester students are rehearsing for the 1967 musical show "Camelot". All grades of the Senior High division are represented in the cast as well as all towns of the district.

Ward Abronski holds the title of King Arthur, portrayed in the original Broadway play by Richard Burton. Ward, a junior, has Shakespearean background from his former school in Nigeria.

Opposite him as leading lady is Corinne Sylvia who has worked backstage in recent productions. Corinne is studying at Boston Conservatory, has sung with many choral groups and has won the audition to sing in the All State Chorus in Boston the week before her appearance here. Julie Andrews was Broadway's Guenevere.

Allan Roderiques sheds his uniform of South Pacific to don the armor of Lancelot this year. Audiences will hear him in the lyrics popularized by Robert Goulet of the professional world.

Another discovery is junior classman, David Helfand, who handles the comic role of King Pellinore, a warm and devoted man in his fifties. David draws on his experience in school and church plays and piano and choir training to join this capable cast.

David Boyce, a senior, will be seen as Mordred, a villain, and Merlyn, a wise magician. David was elected to National Thespians while attending school in Juneau, Alaska.

Other name parts are Laureeann Empey, as sorceress Morgan le Fey; Douglas McGarvey, Sir Dinadin; Warren Washburn, Sir Lionel; Jeffrey Anderson, Tom of Warwick; Paul Gibbs, a page; Michael Collyer and John Hayes, heralds; and James Hartley, Priest.

One character is obviously not a regularly enrolled student at ORR. The part of Horrid has been properly given to Clancy, the eight-year old Irish Setter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Locke.

A supporting mixed chorus of about 30 and a dance corps of a dozen completes the cast.

All of the leadership is coming from within the school this year. Zavan A. Mazmanian adds to his musical responsibilities the complete stage and music direction of the 2-act show. Laureeann Empey, the female lead last year, has accepted the work of choreographing the courtly marches, Maying Dance, Jousting Battle and the Hornpipe.

HAVE FUN DONATING TO THE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Mattapoisett Woman's Club is sponsoring a bowling tournament at Bowlmor Lanes, Mattapoisett on February 11, from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. Trophies for highest total pinfall for 3 games will be awarded to men and women, and boys and girls of high school, junior high and through sixth grade level. Also a family trophy (highest total pinfall by 3 of the members). It is suggested that reservations by made by calling Bowlmor Lanes. All are invited, young and old, regardless whether or not you have ever bowled before.

HOW TO CUT HEAT COSTS:

5 tips that can help you get more warmth from your heating oil dollar

1. Set your thermostat back when you go to bed at night—save significantly on your heating oil bills.

2. Be sure your burner has sufficient air. Oil needs lots of air to burn properly. Don't block off air supply to burner. Don't allow dust and lint to accumulate on air intake openings.

3. Don't block hot air vents or cold air return ducts with furniture.

4. Let us clean and adjust your oil burner. Then help keep it clean by using new clean-burning Shell Heating Oil. Shell Heating Oil is now specially climatized for this area.

5. Stop air leaks around poorly fitted windows by using weather-stripping or storm windows.

PINEWOOD DERBY

Mattapoisett Cub Pack 53 will hold its annual Pinewood Derby this Sunday, January 29, at 2 P.M. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Route 6. The three winners of the run-offs will enter the Council run-offs in New Bedford in the future. Everyone is invited who would like to come.

ESSAY WINNER ANNOUNCED

Miss Doris Fearing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fearing, North Street, Mattapoisett, was the winner of the $25.00 U. S. Savings Bond for her entry in the "Peace Essay Contest", sponsored locally by the Mattapoisett Lions Club. Miss Fearing now becomes eligible for the $25,000. first prize being offered by Lions International.

The Mattapoisett Lions Club will meet this Wednesday, January 25th, at 7:00 P.M. at the Harbor Beach Club.

The annual calendar project is now underway and all residents of Mattapoisett will be contacted, and it is hoped that all will participate.

The Lions Club will sponsor a Glaucoma Clinic, set for February 15th, at the Center School from 1:00 to 5:00 P.M. More information on this will be published shortly.

GIRL SCOUTS BEGIN COOKIE SALE

Beginning on Friday, January 27th through February 4th, Girl Scouts will start to take orders in the annual cookie sale. To many people, Girl Scouts and cookies may seem synonymous; but actually this annual sale is a source of supplementary income to help provide good program in the overall needs of Girl Scouting today. Ten cents from every box will go directly to the Troop Treasury of the Girl Scout who sells the cookies.
